

DELTA DORE

Saga

Attending both the leading energy management trade shows, Elec and Interclima, Delta Dore has called upon the agency to help it maintain a consistent image. MBD Espace therefore determined a few layout principles to underline the brand's key values.

colour to highlight its impact and identification.

The company's institutional presence is expressed through giant visuals illustrating its various trades, and by glass totems featuring the built-in products.

The various areas are separated by the floor colour, in hollow-edged patterned white for the products area and green for reception.

Colour principles are based on the presence of a green monochrome extending the brand
